

The LWA Unit Functions

The right hand LED is Blue and will flash at regular intervals when a GPS signal is being received.

The right hand call button (Call button # 1) directly below the blue light is used as a quick speed dial function for easy 2-way communications to ??????????????????.

When finished the call, simply push the middle button, below the red light, to hang up the call.